

Appalachian Off Road Club

By-Laws

Article I

1. This non-profit organization shall be known as the Appalachian Off Road Club.
2. The identifying decal for this organization shall be round with the organization name around its outside perimeter.

Article II

Objectives

1. The Appalachian Off Road Club is organized as a non-profit organization for the purpose of:
 - a) Providing social, educational, and recreational activities for its membership.
 - b) Participating in and supporting civic and environmental activities for the betterment of the community.
 - c) Promoting the sport of four-wheeling for and by its members operating vehicles capable of handling rough terrain.

Article III

Membership and Dues

1. Owners of all make and models of four-wheel drive vehicles and All-Terrain Vehicles (ATV's) are eligible for membership in the Appalachian Off Road Club. Persons need not own a four-wheel drive vehicle to apply for membership consideration.
2. Membership limits can and will be imposed from time to time by the Board of Directors. The board can limit the number of members.
3. Each membership includes the immediate family of household members including spouse and children under the age of eighteen. However, voting power is restricted to one vote per dues paying member.
4. All members must conduct themselves in a respectable and orderly fashion whether in or out of Club activities. All members of the club are required to drive their vehicles in a safe and courteous manner, respect the rights of property owners and not willfully or wantonly destroy, remove or damage in any way the property of another club member or property owner. Members are expected to obey the orders of the assigned trail leader in regards to keeping the event safe and moving along. Any unnecessary risk taking is frowned upon and will be dealt with by the Board of Directors as soon as possible. No alcoholic beverages or illegal substances will be consumed during a function where vehicles are being operated. Failure to comply may result in the suspension or removal of a member.
5. Applicants for membership must be at least eighteen years of age (exceptions may be made by decision of the Board of Directors), must hold a valid driver's license, and must have a minimum of property liability & property damage insurance coverage on their vehicles. Antique plates are welcome. ATV's are recommended to be insured as well.
6. Applicants for membership should attend a Club function prior to consideration for membership. An application form must be completed and sent to the Board of Directors along with remittance for the current year's dues before membership may be granted. Following review of each application by the Board of Directors, the applicant will be notified as to their acceptance or rejection.
7. Dues for this organization shall be $20 per membership per year, payable in advance. Any member whose dues are three months in arrears shall be dropped from the rolls of this organization by June 1st if the dues are not paid. Nothing herein contained shall prevent reinstatement of a delinquent member upon payment in full of their unpaid dues, providing vacancy exists. Dues are not prorated and are due upon application and by March 1st for renewal. Dues are non-refundable and not negotiable. Special considerations for dues can be made by the Board of Directors on a case by case basis.

8. All additional personal expenses such as uniforms, decals, insignia, etc., shall be born by each individual and are not to be arranged for in any manner by the club.
9. Members shall immediately notify the Secretary of any change of physical address, mailing address, email address or telephone numbers.
10. Resignation of any member shall be in writing and submitted to the Secretary.

Article IV

Suspension or Removal of a Member

1. All members of The Appalachian Off Road Club, Inc. are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner. Should it be necessary to suspend or remove a member from the club for inappropriate behavior, a vote of not less than 2/3 (two-thirds) of the Board of Directors will be required and the offending member shall be informed in writing within seven days stating the reasons for his/her suspension or removal. A member has the right to appeal this decision within 30 days in writing to the club president. The president will set up a hearing for the member to hear his case with the Board. The Board's decision will be final.

Article V

1. The Board of Directors shall designate committees. The President shall assign each committee to a director who shall be responsible for its activities and who, with the approval of the Board of Directors, will appoint a committee chairperson.

Article X

Election of Officers

1. The membership shall meet and elect officers for each year at the January business meeting. The newly elected officers shall take office immediately following closure of the January business meeting.
2. Voting shall be in person at the January business meeting. Proxy voting is not allowed.
3. The candidates for offices must be regular members in good standing. At all elections, nominations for each and every office of this organization may be made from the floor. Nominations for offices shall be taken during the January business meeting.
4. All ballots for offices must be counted and checked by three members other than nominees.
5. A majority of votes cast is necessary for election to an office or position on the Board of Directors.
6. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Vice President Positions, Secretary Positions, or Treasurer, an election shall be called to elect a successor. In the event of a vacancy on the Board of Directors, the Board shall elect a successor. This election must occur during the next club business meeting after the vacancy is announced.
7. Only one member of an immediate family in dues-paying capacity may hold position on the Executive Council. Family members over the age of eighteen paying individual dues may hold office. In the event another immediate member of a household is elected to one of the Executive Governing positions in the organization, a decision between the two family members MUST be decided as to who will relinquish their position. The time

- period for this will be 7 days from the announced date of the election results. The Board of Directors, at this time will appoint the runner-up in the election to the position so vacated. If there is no runner-up, the Board will appoint a successor.
8. An elected official may terminate their position by submitting a written statement to the Board of Directors. The relinquished position will be voted upon and filled at the next business meeting. Emergency temporary replacements are at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Article XI

Recall

1. Any officer or director of the Appalachian Off Road Club may be recalled by a two third majority vote of the entire membership.

Article XII

Events

1. All events shall be subject to the approval by the Board of Directors. Events will be under the direction of a Trip Leader appointed by the Board of Directors.
2. All events must be conducted in an orderly manner and with safety as the prime factor.
3. Anyone determined to be under the influence of alcohol or mind-altering drugs during any vehicle operation are subject to immediate dismissal from the club.
4. All members are responsible to the direction of the appointed Trip Leader and his/her appointed assistants throughout the determined duration of an event.
5. No provisions are to be made to permit any member to join an event at any time or location if that provision decidedly interrupts the designated time schedule or plan for the event.
6. Any events held on private property must have property owner permission, and will be subject to liability releases and permit requirements as necessary.
7. Any member or guest under the age of eighteen (18) must be accompanied by or have written permission of a parent or guardian to participate in any club event. Members must take full responsibility for the conduct of their guests.
8. All competitive events shall be under the direct authority, supervision, and control of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall determine entrance classifications and regulations for various events and shall approve trophies and awards to be presented. Vehicles may be subject to technical inspection varying according to the type of event and shall be disqualified if found to be mechanically unsafe.
9. All members and guests participating in an event shall abide by the laws of the State concerned, and by the laws and regulations of the city, the county, or the circumstances involved.
10. All club members and their passengers must sign a waiver of liability and indemnity before being permitted on a club event. A technical inspection may be performed by the trail leader(s) before leaving for the run to ensure required equipment, safety equipment, and suitability of the vehicles/personnel.
11. During club sponsored trail rides, members in good standing may invite as many guests as their vehicle will carry, but no more than one guest driving an additional off road vehicle that has passed technical inspection. Exceptions to this will only be made in unusual circumstances with approval of the Trip Leader. This will assure that no club sponsored trail ride has too many participants, which affects the convenience and safety of those participating. Additionally, members inviting a guest driving his/her vehicle shall notify the Trip Leader of this guest prior to the trail ride. When a given trail ride is particularly popular (i.e. many vehicles are expected) the Trip Leader may ask members to refrain from inviting additional guests with their own vehicles. Waivers must be obtained from all guests prior to the event start.

Article XIII
